Camp Director - Matt Siverling

Siverling just completed his first season as the head coach of the Yellowjackets. Siverling came to the Yellowjackets following a three-year stint with the Arkansas Razorbacks. Prior to his time at Arkansas, Siverling was an assistant coach at WIAC-rival UW-Eau Claire (2004-07). Siverling also spent two seasons (2002-04) working with Billy Donovan and the Florida Gators.

“This is a very exciting time to be part of UW-Superior Basketball. We are committed to providing you with an outstanding basketball camp experience and we look forward to working with you this summer to help you reach your full potential as a basketball player.”

“Matt Siverling directed the Cuba City Basketball Camp for seven years. Because of Matt, I feel that we have an edge over the competition. I love his work ethic, competitiveness, and leadership. If I were a basketball player and could only attend one camp in the summer, it would be a camp directed by Matt Siverling. He is simply the best at what he does.”

Jerry Petitgoue - Cuba City Boy's Basketball Coach

“When Matt Siverling played in our program at Ladysmith, no one worked harder. He brings the dedication, desire, and work ethic that he played with to camp. He has learned from some of the best individual instruction coaches in the country and takes pride in teaching young people the game of basketball.”

Forrest Larson - Take It To The Rim Basketball Camps

“Matt Siverling is one of the hardest working people I have come across. He has dedicated himself to the game of basketball and helping young people.”

Billy Donovan - University of Florida Men's Basketball Coach
