

UW-Superior Boy's Basketball Camps

Yellowjacket Basketball Camp ($140) - June 22-25, 9:00am-4:00pm

Campers will be exposed to instruction focusing on their fundamental development in all areas along with participating in a number of different competitive drills and games. Campers will also receive a T-Shirt. Boys entering grades 3-12 are eligible to register.

Yellowjacket Scoring Camp ($75) - July 7-8, 9:00am-4:00pm

This camp is designed to teach campers techniques that will allow them to score the basketball in a variety of ways. Campers will also be put in a number of different competitive settings to work on different scoring techniques. All campers will receive a T-Shirt. Boys entering grades 3-12 are eligible to register.

Overnight Skills Camp ($160(Commuter)/$200(Resident) - July 21-23, 4pm-9pm, 9am-9pm, 9am-4pm: Campers' skill work and speed of play will be pushed and developed throughout these 3 days of camp. We also look forward to having our campers have fun and learn in a teamwork environment over these 3 days. This camp will provide dinner at the Yellowjacket Union on July 21st, 3 meals on July 22nd, along with breakfast and lunch on July 23rd. Campers will also have the option to spend the night on campus in the residence halls. Boys entering grades 6-12 are eligible to register and all campers will receive a T-Shirt.

Yellowjacket Shooting Camp ($60) - August 6th, 9:00am-4:00pm

The focus of this camp will be entirely on each camper's ability to shoot the basketball, create off the dribble, and finish at the rim. Campers will also receive a T-Shirt. Boys entering grades 3-12 are eligible to register. Campers will also be provided lunch at this camp at the Yellowjacket Union.
